

Bath International
MusicFest [®]

30 May–10 June 2012

This year's Festival takes place over 12 glorious summer days and is brimming with stunning jazz, classical, contemporary and folk music. We bring world-class performers to your doorstep, from piano trios to chamber choirs, folk singers to jazz virtuosos, and poets to eminent composers. Be awed by magical opera (Vivaldi's L'Olimpiade and Mozart's The Magic Flute) and hear mesmerising folk from Julie Fowlis and Bella Hardy. We mark the Diamond Jubilee with two wonderful concerts: Bath Philharmonia perform a feast of great British orchestral music, including Holst's The Planets at The Forum, and I Fagiolini give a heart-stopping performance of Striggio's Mass in 40 parts. Witness jazz legend Stan Tracey and infectious funk magician Courtney Pine. Get involved in half term family fun, and much more...

Pick up your tickets now from Bath Box Office (See number 28 on the map!)

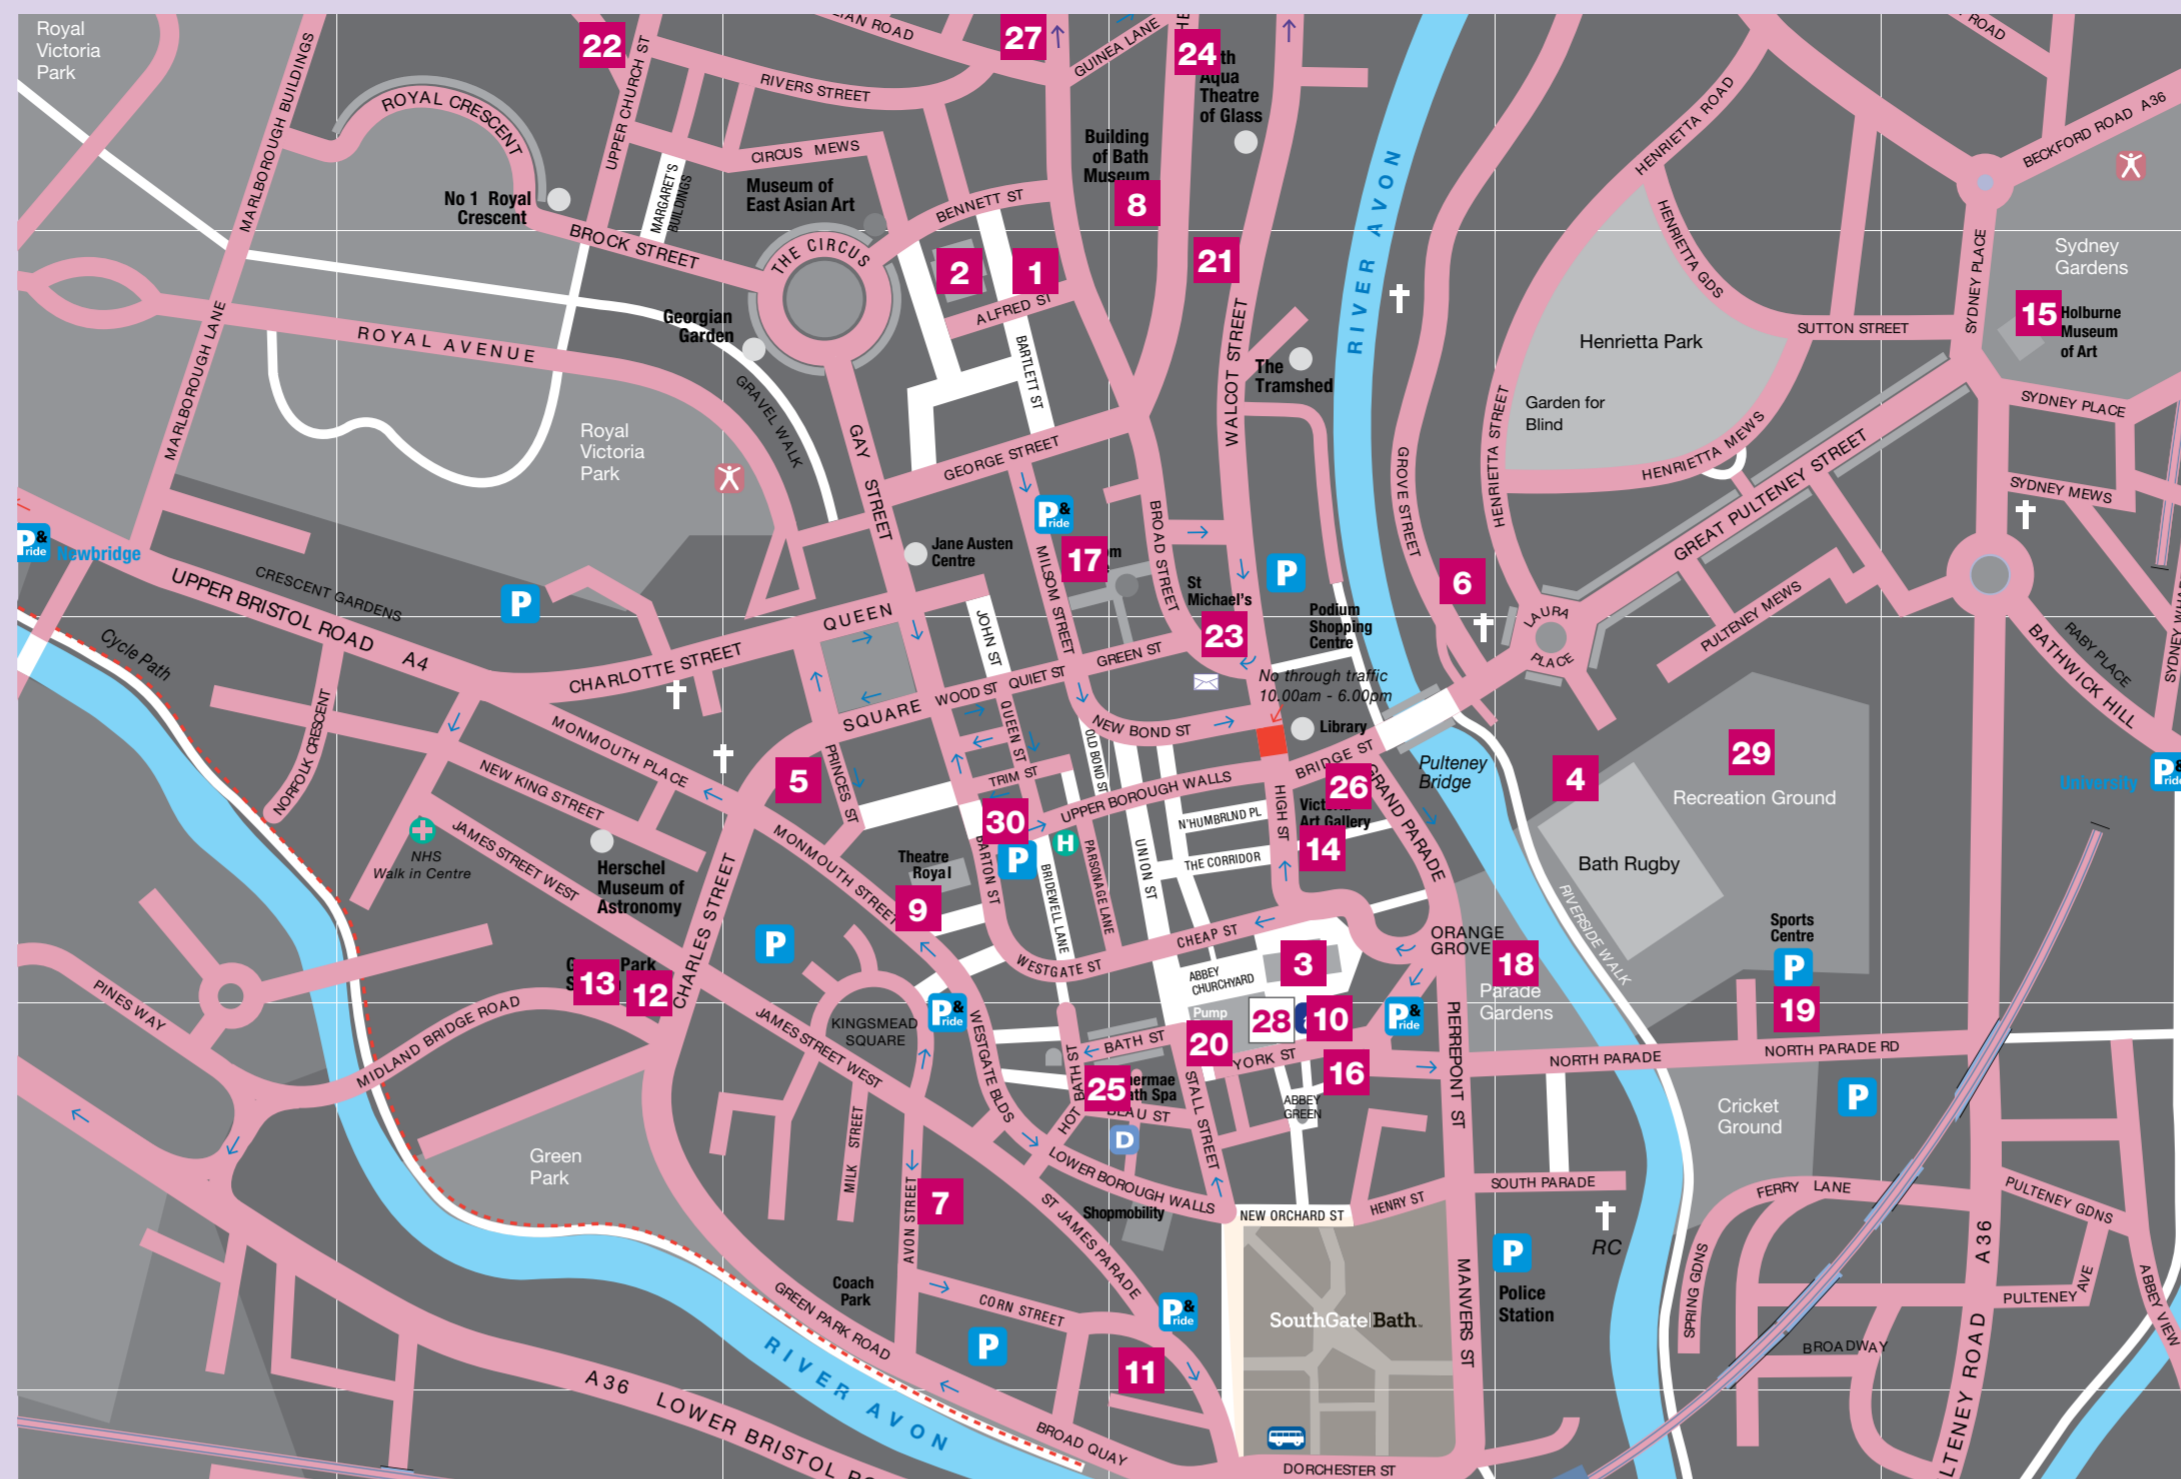

Opening Hours
Monday to Saturday
 9.30am–5.30pm

Sunday and Bank Holidays
 10am–4pm

Party in the City Night
 open until 9pm

www.bathmusicfest.org.uk
 Tickets 01225 463362

Follow us on Twitter @BathMusicFest
 Follow us on Facebook /BathMusicFest

© Bath Tourism Plus

- 1 Assembly Inn
Alfred Street
Bath BA1 2QU
- 2 Assembly Rooms
Bennett Street
Bath BA1 2QH
- 3 Bath Abbey
Abbey Churchyard
Bath BA1 1LY
- 4 Bath Rugby Clubhouse
The Recreation Ground
Spring Gardens
Bath BA2 4DS
- 5 Beaujolais Bistro Bar
5 Chapel Row
Bath BA1 1HN
- 6 Central United Reformed Church
Argyle Street
Bath BA2 4BA
- 7 City of Bath College
Main Entrance
Avon Street
Bath BA1 1UP
- 8 The Countess of Huntingdon's Chapel
The Paragon
Walcot, Bath BA1 5NA
- 9 the egg
Theatre Royal Bath Sawclose
Bath BA1 1ET
- 10 Friends Meeting House
York Street, Bath BA1 1NG
- 11 The Forum
St James Parade
Bath BA1 1UG
- 12 Green Park Brasserie
Green Park Road
Bath BA1 2DR
- 13 Green Park Station
Green Park Road
Bath BA1 1JB
- 14 Guildhall
High Street
Bath BA1 5AW
- 15 Holburne Museum
Great Pulteney Street
Bath BA2 4DB
- 16 The Huntsman
1 Terrace Walk
North Parade
Bath BA1 1LY
- 17 Milsom Place
Entrances on Milsom Street and Broad Street, Bath BA1 1BZ
- 18 Parade Gardens
Grand Parade
Bath BA2 4DF
- 19 Pavilion
North Parade, Bath BA2 4EU
- 20 Pump Room
Abbey Churchyard
Bath BA1 1LZ
- 21 Sam's Kitchen
61 Walcot Street
Bath BA1 5BN
- 22 St James' Wine Vaults
St James Square
Bath BA1 2TW
- 23 St Michael's Without
Broad Street
Bath BA1 5LJ
- 24 St Swithin's Church
The Paragon
Bath BA1 5LY
- 25 Thermae Bath Spa
Cross Bath
St Michael's Place
Bath BA1 1UP
- 26 Victoria Art Gallery
Bridge Street
Bath BA2 4AT
- 27 Ye Olde Farmhouse
1 Lansdown Rd
Bath BA1 5EE
- 28 Bath Box Office
Bath Visitor Information Centre
Abbey Chambers
Abbey Churchyard
Bath BA1 1NL
- 29 Bath Fringe Spiegelent
Bath Recreational Ground
- 30 Gascoyne Place
1 Sawclose
Bath BA1 1EY

Courtney Pine

O Duo

Alison Balsom

Bish! (see Angela Carter event)

Reinis Zarins

CSF at MusicFest

Dorothy Coleborn School of Dance

Kingswood Jazz Orchestra

Mendip Mitea Voice Choir

Chloe Foy

Party in the City
 The Biggest Free Show in Bath
 Friday 1 June 2012

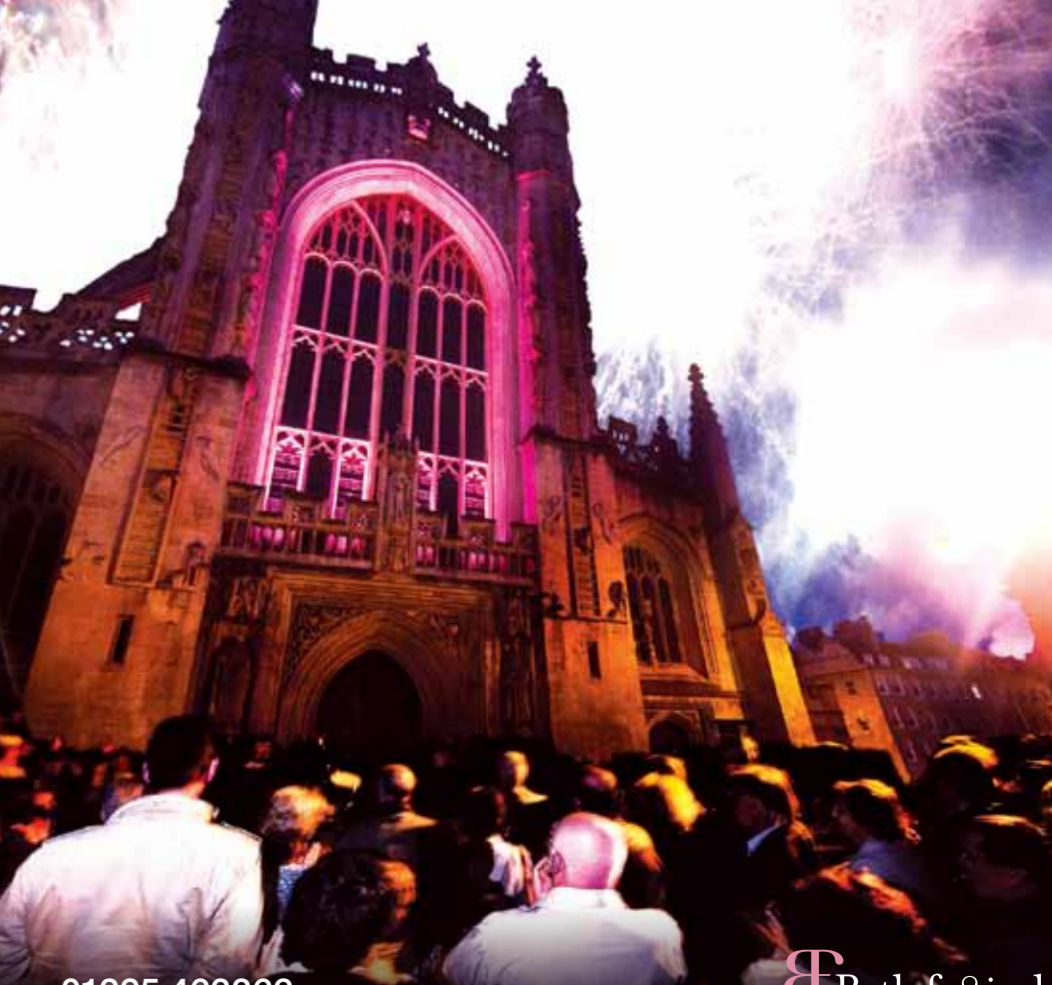

Party in the City takes over Bath's venues and public spaces on the first Friday of Bath International Music Festival to celebrate the fantastic musical talent of our city. Catch chamber ensembles, jazz acts, street performers, rock bands and more throughout the evening. The Party begins with our annual Festival procession and schools commission in Bath Abbey, led by Brazilian composer and percussionist Adriano Adewale. The evening finishes with a firework display and headline act at the Pavilion – the unrivalled dance floor band Babyhead.

For more details please visit www.partyinthecity.org.uk

Party in the City Sponsors and Supporters

The Roper Family Charitable Trust
 The Joyce Fletcher Charitable Trust
 Courts Charitable Trust
 D'Oyly Carte Charitable Trust

www.partyinthecity.org.uk
Bath International Music Festival
Party in the City [®]
 The Biggest Free Show in Bath
 Friday 1 June 2012

Party in the City

All performances are free

Assembly Inn

7-7.20pm
Sadie Fleming
Armed with her keyboard and guitar, Sadie Fleming's debut album Butterfly Wishes is a collection of life-inspired quirky pop, folk and acoustic music, taking influence from the likes of Regina Spektor and Cat Power.

7.30-7.50pm
Ieuan Williams
Bristol-based Ieuan Williams has been performing and writing songs for most of his life. He has performed all over Wales and the southwest, supporting acts such as Ben Marwood, Oxygen Thief and Gaz Brookfield.

8-8.20pm
Caomhe
Caomhe has performed her own country-influenced material at music festivals and venues throughout England. She was featured on BBC introducing earlier this year and is currently working between London and Nashville.

8.30-8.50pm
Chloe Heywood
Guitarist Chloe Heywood and vocalist Terry Veale bring you a mix of swinging American song book standards and sparking Latin favourites.

9-9.30pm
Jinski
Hailing from Newcastle upon Tyne, Dave Kennedy and Steve Jinski perform a wealth of original songs that draw upon acoustic roots and country music, whilst remaining resolutely modern.

Assembly Rooms

6.30-6.50pm
A Handful of Singers
Bath's highly acclaimed chamber choir of 20 voices - directed by award-winning conductor Christopher Finch - presents a lively programme of both serious and light-hearted music.

7-7.20pm
Jane Lilley Singers
Performing for over 38 years, the Jane Lilley Singers is one of the most well-known and respected choirs in the country and will perform a wide range of musical genres.

7.30-7.50pm
Bath Spa String Quartet
Professional musicians and postgraduates of the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama perform Schubert 'Rosamunde' Quartet in A minor.

8.30-8.50pm
Bath All Corners Orchestra
On their 10th anniversary, this Bath-based amateur group performs a programme of joyful orchestral music.

You can keep up to date on Facebook bathmusicfest and follow us on twitter: @bathmusicfest.

8-8.20pm
Evelyn Strasburger & Carlos Alonso
Carlos and Evelyn met as vocal students and enjoy singing together in many different venues. Tonight they will perform a short scene from the popular opera La Bohème.

8.30-8.50pm
Bristol Concert Wind Band
Bristol's premier wind band, under the baton of Rainer Dolz, offers a diverse programme of music from classical to swing.

9-9.30pm
Bath Spa Band
Your local brass band plays a selection of traditional and contemporary music that will have you singing and clapping along.

Bath Abbey

5.30-6pm
Festival Procession
The evening gets underway with our annual Schools Procession, a fantastic carnival looking forward to the Olympics in Rio 2016 which sets off from the Holburne Museum and winds its way to Bath Abbey via Great Pulteney Street, Grand Parade and Orange Grove.

6-6.30pm
Festival Commission
Adriano Adewale, Brazilian percussionist and composer extraordinaire, returns to create our regular Party in the City commission in Bath Abbey with hundreds of school children, celebrating the passion and power of sport and music.

6.40-6.50pm
Melody Makers
Founded in 2011, Melody Makers is Bath Abbey's youngest choir. Children between the ages of 6 and 11 are taught music theory and learn to sing in a fun and rewarding environment.

7-7.20pm
Silver Ring Choir of Bath
The Silver Ring Choir has a reputation for excellence in performance and success in competitions in England, Wales and around the world. Established in 1951 the Choir continues to entertain audiences with its diverse and innovative programmes.

7.30-7.50pm
Bath Spa University Choir
A programme of wonderful choral music from the youthful voices of Bath Spa University's Music Department.

8-8.20pm
The Bath Chorus
A mixed-voice auditioned choir, started by Grenville Jones in 2009, that has performed at Bath Abbey and Wells Cathedral and on stage with Aled Jones, Hayley Westenra and Rhydian Roberts.

8.30-8.50pm
Bath All Corners Orchestra
On their 10th anniversary, this Bath-based amateur group performs a programme of joyful orchestral music.

9-9.20pm
Bath Male Choir
With their founder conductor Grenville Jones, Bath Male Choir has been seen across the World through their BBC Last Choir Standing success.

9.30-9.50pm
Bath Choral Society
In its jubilee year, Bath Choral Society's programme comprises music by composers who have written for coronations, including Handel's Zadok the Priest, excerpts from Vaughan Williams's G-minor Mass, and Jubilate by William Walton.

10.15-11.15pm
The Psalms Project
A contemporary journey through the Old Testament Psalms, told in the musical language of feature films. Award-winning composer Steven Faux presents this special multi-media performance with musicians, synchronised orchestral tracks and specially shot movies.

Bath Fringe Spiegeltent

6.30-8.30pm
The Hot Potato Syncopators
The most suave and sophisticated show in Bath Fringe Festival: matinee idols and deb's' darlings playing favourite tunes of the 1920s to 40s on ukulele, tea-chest bass and musical saw.

Bath Rugby Clubhouse

7-7.30pm
Paul Garry
Catchy melodies and poetic lyrics all soaked in whisky sunshine vocals. This songwriter will ignite your mind with tales of love, life and good times.

7.45-8.15pm
Ruth Royall
Ruth Royall's unique style of classic jazz mixed with her own songwriting creates a timeless quality. Taking inspiration from old jazz records, she has a voice to rival Billie Holiday and Etta James.

8.30-9pm
Sam Brookes
Fresh soulful magic from this young singer/songwriter. Having supported the likes of Kinks front man Ray Davies and with his debut album in the shops, Sam Brookes is a welcome addition to the folkful fringes of the UK circuit.

9.15-9.45pm
James Froud Band
Trains, coal mining, back beat towns and dead end cities, accompanied by a chorus of unrequited love, lost souls, and the words you can't quite say. The band plays songs written by Bristol-based James Froud, in a style centred on alternative country and bluegrass.

10-10.30pm
Dudlow Joe
Bath-based band that has been performing its particular brand of boogie woogie inflected and New Orleans-ified rhythm and blues for the last ten years.

10.45-11.30pm
Mike Hoddinott Blues Allstars
The Blues Allstars have been performing at blues venues and festivals for over 15 years. They perform blues rock on drums, harmonica, guitar, bass and organ, bringing a creative jazz-like approach to solos and arrangements.

Beaujolais Bistro Bar

7-10pm
The Gaulois Brothers
Sample the delicious food or enjoy a drink in the bar area while listening to acoustic jazz influenced by Django Reinhardt's Hot Club de France. The singing rhythms and vibrant sound of the Maccaferi guitar make for an atmosphere evocative of gypsy campfires and Parisian cafes.

Central United Reformed Church

4-5pm
Soundwell Music Therapy Trust
Soundwell is a unique local music therapy service, working in the field of adult mental health. Join experienced Music Therapists for a one-off taster workshop, exploring and creating music together on a variety of easily accessible and good quality instruments. No musical skills necessary.

6.30-6.50pm
Trio Sospiroso
A flute, viola and harp trio with a spirit of adventure is one of the UK's leading exponents of music written for this esoteric combination.

7-7.20pm
Shannon Gallant
Working in the music industry for over a decade this critically acclaimed singer and writer works with various genres from Jazz to Classical.

7.30-7.50pm
Bath Opera
Principles and chorus of Bath Opera perform popular arias and choruses from the world of grand opera and operetta, including excerpts from Bizet's Carmen, Bath Opera's touring production for 2012.

8-8.20pm
Loose Caboose Jazz
Performing their own interpretation of a huge repertoire of jazz standards from ballads, to blues, swing, Latin and soul.

8.30-8.50pm
Bashema
Jelli Records artist and Bristol Music Show Presenter on BCFM Radio, Bashema, will be releasing her first album during autumn 2012. She mixes jazz and classical piano with sultry vocals.

9-9.20pm
Z'Bella
A Bath-based capella quartet with a wide repertoire, stunning soloists and a real sense of fun. From Jackson Five to Cole Porter, from Latino rhythms to Jazz Afrika, Z'Bella will take you on a thrilling musical travelogue, and put a smile on your face on the way.

City of Bath College

5-10.30pm
BA1 Records Showcase
BA1 Records hosts three stages featuring over one hundred young musicians performing original material. Bands will include The Cerulean, Nostalgic Romantics, Sell Your Sky, NoFunClub, Lil Mamas, The Unknown and many more of the brightest up-and-coming bands in the city. BA1:FM Radio will be broadcasting live DJs and MCs from a stage in the College car park.

Green Park Brasserie

8-8.20pm
City of Bath Bach Choir
Passion and precision are the hallmarks of this exciting choir. Under Musical Director Nigel Perrin, this performance will encompass romantic Elgar, humorous tales by Bob Chilcott, festive African wedding songs and an exuberant tour de force by American contemporary icon Eric Whitacre.

8.30-8.50pm
Mendip Male Voice Choir
This modern 80 strong choir appeals to a wide range of singers and audiences by performing a varied programme of show songs, popular music and traditional pieces.

Green Park Station

6.30-8.30pm
Kingswood School's Station Swing
Kingswood Jazz Orchestra takes you back to a time when Swing was king! Returning for their fourth year at Green Park Station, the award-winning orchestra and vocalists will entertain you with wartime classics from Glenn Miller to Benny Goodman.

6-6.40pm
Gavin Lazarus Trio
From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

7-7.45pm
Jinski
Jinski brings together two individual guitarists with strong distinctive voices. They have a wealth of original songs that draw upon acoustic roots and country music and their live work is a kaleidoscope of musical and lyrical imagery.

7.45-8.15pm
Antonio Lulić
A rock-folk singer from the North East. His deep and gravel-throated vocals combine with a powerful yet intimate lyrical style to deliver torrents of rootsy, soulful music.

8-8.45pm
Victoria Klewin and the TrueTones
Bridging the gap between old and new with effortless style, Victoria Klewin & the TrueTones blend vocally-driven blues, jazz and soul. This authentic outfit is bringing back a slice of the golden age.

7-7.30pm
Under the Driftwood Tree
This acoustic group has played festivals all over the UK and Ireland, featured on BBC introducing and recorded at Maida Vale Studios. Come along and dance to their unique surly folkly pop music!

7.45-8.15pm
Hot Feet
Hot Feet is a youthful and enchanting folk, blues, roots'n'roll group from Stroud. Influenced by Fairport Convention and Pentage, they elegantly fuse Delta blues, 60s folk, Psychedelic and Gypsy Jazz.

8.30-9pm
Cakehole Presley
This Cardiff band has featured on NME's top unsigned band and has recently released an all-singing, all-dancing debut album. Get ready to jiggle your feet to their melodic, eclectic folk and blues.

9.15-9.45pm
The Bleedin' Noses
Self-proclaimed Welsh hillbillies The Bleedin' Noses are a country punk rock folk band with a big sound. Drums, bass, guitars, banjos, mandolins, keyboards, accordion and vocals make an up-tempo dynamic sound that has won over audiences all over the UK.

10.15-11.45pm
Babyhead
Finishing off the Party with a bang is the unrivalled dance floor band Babyhead. They've been a live phenomenon for a decade plus, rocking stages from Glastonbury to Fabric. Get ready to dance!

9.30-9.50pm
The Royal United Hospital Staff Choir
Staff who work at or who have worked for the Royal United Hospital come together weekly to sing classic pop, jazz and light classical repertoire.

5-10.30pm
BA1 Records Showcase
BA1 Records hosts three stages featuring over one hundred young musicians performing original material. Bands will include The Cerulean, Nostalgic Romantics, Sell Your Sky, NoFunClub, Lil Mamas, The Unknown and many more of the brightest up-and-coming bands in the city. BA1:FM Radio will be broadcasting live DJs and MCs from a stage in the College car park.

8-8.20pm
City of Bath Bach Choir
Passion and precision are the hallmarks of this exciting choir. Under Musical Director Nigel Perrin, this performance will encompass romantic Elgar, humorous tales by Bob Chilcott, festive African wedding songs and an exuberant tour de force by American contemporary icon Eric Whitacre.

8.30-8.50pm
Mendip Male Voice Choir
This modern 80 strong choir appeals to a wide range of singers and audiences by performing a varied programme of show songs, popular music and traditional pieces.

8.30-8.50pm
Mendip Male Voice Choir
This vibrant West Country wind orchestra presents an eclectic mix of Rock, Classics and Big-band Swing. Recent successes include BBC Radio 3's Light Fantastic and a Gershwin Evening at St George's Bristol.

7-7.20pm
Harbour Winds
This Bristol-based wind quintet performs an energetic, varied and entertaining programme of popular and lesser-known works.

7.20-8pm
Jigfoot
Jigfoot creates inventive arrangements of English folk dance tunes, played with energy, wit and swing. The distinctive Jigfoot sound combines a robust and rhythmic approach with excellent musicianship.

8.10-8.50pm
Chandos Singers
The Chandos Singers are a leading Bath chamber choir. This year they are celebrating the 450th anniversary of the 16th century Dutch composer Sweelinck.

8.10-8.30pm
Jerrome Recorders
Listen to and enjoy the sounds of many different sizes of recorder - from the large contrabass standing at 6ft tall down to the small soprano.

8.40-9pm
Jezebrun Acoustic Fusion
Iford Arts Opera Project 'Themes & Triatlons' with St Michaels Junior School, Twerton, led by Jason Thornton.

7-7.20pm
Cantelina
Cantelina boasts a 40 strong line-up, made up of secondary school children from B&NES. The choir fosters a communal passion for all styles of music from Medieval to Modern, Folk to Fusion and everything in between!

8-9pm
Sisters of Swing
An all-female swing band with an unmistakable Thirties sound. Formed in 2011, many of the players are 'returners' to music, and all are committed to taking live music into the community.

The Huntsman

8.30-10pm
Gavin Lazarus Quartet
The quartet performs an exciting mixture of original material and choice standards, often veering off the beaten track to showcase lesser heard gems. From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

Milsons Place

5-5.45pm
Daniel Gerrard
Playing professionally for 20 years all over the world, in a variety of styles, Daniel Gerrard's Acoustic Ensemble combines elements of music from around the world in a jazz-fusion vein.

6.30-8.30pm
Kingswood School's Station Swing
Kingswood Jazz Orchestra takes you back to a time when Swing was king! Returning for their fourth year at Green Park Station, the award-winning orchestra and vocalists will entertain you with wartime classics from Glenn Miller to Benny Goodman.

6-6.40pm
Gavin Lazarus Trio
From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

7-7.45pm
Jinski
Jinski brings together two individual guitarists with strong distinctive voices. They have a wealth of original songs that draw upon acoustic roots and country music and their live work is a kaleidoscope of musical and lyrical imagery.

7.45-8.15pm
Antonio Lulić
A rock-folk singer from the North East. His deep and gravel-throated vocals combine with a powerful yet intimate lyrical style to deliver torrents of rootsy, soulful music.

8-8.45pm
Victoria Klewin and the TrueTones
Bridging the gap between old and new with effortless style, Victoria Klewin & the TrueTones blend vocally-driven blues, jazz and soul. This authentic outfit is bringing back a slice of the golden age.

7-7.30pm
Under the Driftwood Tree
This acoustic group has played festivals all over the UK and Ireland, featured on BBC introducing and recorded at Maida Vale Studios. Come along and dance to their unique surly folkly pop music!

7.45-8.15pm
Hot Feet
Hot Feet is a youthful and enchanting folk, blues, roots'n'roll group from Stroud. Influenced by Fairport Convention and Pentage, they elegantly fuse Delta blues, 60s folk, Psychedelic and Gypsy Jazz.

8.30-9pm
Cakehole Presley
This Cardiff band has featured on NME's top unsigned band and has recently released an all-singing, all-dancing debut album. Get ready to jiggle your feet to their melodic, eclectic folk and blues.

9.15-9.45pm
The Bleedin' Noses
Self-proclaimed Welsh hillbillies The Bleedin' Noses are a country punk rock folk band with a big sound. Drums, bass, guitars, banjos, mandolins, keyboards, accordion and vocals make an up-tempo dynamic sound that has won over audiences all over the UK.

10.15-11.45pm
Babyhead
Finishing off the Party with a bang is the unrivalled dance floor band Babyhead. They've been a live phenomenon for a decade plus, rocking stages from Glastonbury to Fabric. Get ready to dance!

Green Park Brasserie

8.30-10pm
Gavin Lazarus Quartet
The quartet performs an exciting mixture of original material and choice standards, often veering off the beaten track to showcase lesser heard gems. From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

5-5.45pm
Daniel Gerrard
Playing professionally for 20 years all over the world, in a variety of styles, Daniel Gerrard's Acoustic Ensemble combines elements of music from around the world in a jazz-fusion vein.

6.30-8.30pm
Kingswood School's Station Swing
Kingswood Jazz Orchestra takes you back to a time when Swing was king! Returning for their fourth year at Green Park Station, the award-winning orchestra and vocalists will entertain you with wartime classics from Glenn Miller to Benny Goodman.

6-6.40pm
Gavin Lazarus Trio
From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

7-7.45pm
Jinski
Jinski brings together two individual guitarists with strong distinctive voices. They have a wealth of original songs that draw upon acoustic roots and country music and their live work is a kaleidoscope of musical and lyrical imagery.

7.45-8.15pm
Antonio Lulić
A rock-folk singer from the North East. His deep and gravel-throated vocals combine with a powerful yet intimate lyrical style to deliver torrents of rootsy, soulful music.

8-8.45pm
Victoria Klewin and the TrueTones
Bridging the gap between old and new with effortless style, Victoria Klewin & the TrueTones blend vocally-driven blues, jazz and soul. This authentic outfit is bringing back a slice of the golden age.

7-7.30pm
Under the Driftwood Tree
This acoustic group has played festivals all over the UK and Ireland, featured on BBC introducing and recorded at Maida Vale Studios. Come along and dance to their unique surly folkly pop music!

7.45-8.15pm
Hot Feet
Hot Feet is a youthful and enchanting folk, blues, roots'n'roll group from Stroud. Influenced by Fairport Convention and Pentage, they elegantly fuse Delta blues, 60s folk, Psychedelic and Gypsy Jazz.

8.30-9pm
Cakehole Presley
This Cardiff band has featured on NME's top unsigned band and has recently released an all-singing, all-dancing debut album. Get ready to jiggle your feet to their melodic, eclectic folk and blues.

9.15-9.45pm
The Bleedin' Noses
Self-proclaimed Welsh hillbillies The Bleedin' Noses are a country punk rock folk band with a big sound. Drums, bass, guitars, banjos, mandolins, keyboards, accordion and vocals make an up-tempo dynamic sound that has won over audiences all over the UK.

10.15-11.45pm
Babyhead
Finishing off the Party with a bang is the unrivalled dance floor band Babyhead. They've been a live phenomenon for a decade plus, rocking stages from Glastonbury to Fabric. Get ready to dance!

Pump Room

7.30-7.50pm
Tim Graham
Making a big impact on the local scene, Tim's songs are rooted in the storytelling tradition of the British Isles. He has performed with the likes of Gren Bartley and James Findlay and in 2010 joined Australian folk-rockers The Wishing Well on tour.

8-8.20pm
Lund Quartet
Heavily influenced by the Scandinavian jazz scene and turtablism, this instrumental band uses recorded samples of Bristol's finest musicians alongside a traditional line-up of drums, piano and double bass.

8.30-8.50pm
Liam Blake
Liam's songs are laden with hooks and refrains that make them compelling and timeless. His bitter-sweet narrative is a journey through life for the everyday that reflects the West Coast singer/songwriters of the 70s.

9-9.20pm
Chloe Foy
Chloe Foy is a young singer/songwriter from Gloucestershire. Her light distinct vocals and poetic lyrics create a pure, melodious and enchanting sound, which will captivate any listener.

9.30-10pm
The Swiss
A jazz act with a unique voice and compositions that push the boundaries of the ever-changing jazz spectrum. Their new album Russell's Teapot fuses infectious melodies, rock rhythms, electronica musings and jazz improvisation.

7.30-7.50pm
Sam's Kitchen
John Cage's Musicircus Musicians from Bath Spa University and CoMA will be celebrating the great John Cage's centenary with his legendary event Musicircus. St Swithin's will be transformed into a 'Cage Palace' - a party hosting simultaneous performances of Cage's music by ensembles, actors, musicians, artists, dancers and electronics. There'll be film, readings of James Joyce's Finnegan's Wake and Angela Carter's Nights at the Circus, plus games and activities for all ages.

6-8pm
The Bohemian Embassy
Ambassadors of the strange, the wonderful and the socially unconventional, who aim to be the most entertaining and thought-provoking music group of any time. Catch their live show whilst browsing the Art on the Edge Olympic sculpture exhibition and the witty, colourful paintings of Richard Burel.

3-11pm
Lost Legion Records Showcase
Lost Legion Records presents a full day of acoustic music from local and West Country talents including Gaz Brookfield, Joe Coleman & The Hips Licks, Gandhi Warhorse and The Joe Mulcrone Band. If the sun shines enjoy a barbecue in the garden, followed by music indoors all night.

8-8.20pm
Lund Quartet
Heavily influenced by the Scandinavian jazz scene and turtablism, this instrumental band uses recorded samples of Bristol's finest musicians alongside a traditional line-up of drums, piano and double bass.

8.30-8.50pm
Liam Blake
Liam's songs are laden with hooks and refrains that make them compelling and timeless. His bitter-sweet narrative is a journey through life for the everyday that reflects the West Coast singer/songwriters of the 70s.

9-9.20pm
Chloe Foy
Chloe Foy is a young singer/songwriter from Gloucestershire. Her light distinct vocals and poetic lyrics create a pure, melodious and enchanting sound, which will captivate any listener.

9.30-10pm
The Swiss
A jazz act with a unique voice and compositions that push the boundaries of the ever-changing jazz spectrum. Their new album Russell's Teapot fuses infectious melodies, rock rhythms, electronica musings and jazz improvisation.

Sam's Kitchen

8-10pm
Gavin Lazarus Quartet
The quartet performs an exciting mixture of original material and choice standards, often veering off the beaten track to showcase lesser heard gems. From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

5-5.45pm
Daniel Gerrard
Playing professionally for 20 years all over the world, in a variety of styles, Daniel Gerrard's Acoustic Ensemble combines elements of music from around the world in a jazz-fusion vein.

6.30-8.30pm
Kingswood School's Station Swing
Kingswood Jazz Orchestra takes you back to a time when Swing was king! Returning for their fourth year at Green Park Station, the award-winning orchestra and vocalists will entertain you with wartime classics from Glenn Miller to Benny Goodman.

6-6.40pm
Gavin Lazarus Trio
From jazz and swing through jump jive and blues laced with poignant ballads, Gavin Lazarus provides music to move both the heart and the feet.

7-7.45pm
Jinski
Jinski brings together two individual guitarists with strong distinctive voices. They have a wealth of original songs that draw upon acoustic roots and country music and their live work is a kaleidoscope of musical and lyrical imagery.

7.45-8.15pm
Antonio Lulić
A rock-folk singer from the North East. His deep and gravel-throated vocals combine with a powerful yet intimate lyrical style to deliver torrents of rootsy, soulful music.

8-8.45pm
Victoria Klewin and the TrueTones
Bridging the gap between old and new with effortless style, Victoria Klewin & the TrueTones blend vocally-driven blues, jazz and soul. This authentic outfit is bringing back a slice of the golden age.

7-7.30pm
Under the Driftwood Tree
This acoustic group has played festivals all over the UK and Ireland, featured on BBC introducing and recorded at Maida Vale Studios. Come along and dance to their unique surly folkly pop music!

7.45-8.15pm
Hot Feet
Hot Feet is a youthful and enchanting folk, blues, roots'n'roll group from Stroud. Influenced by Fairport Convention and Pentage, they elegantly fuse Delta blues, 60s folk, Psychedelic and Gypsy Jazz.

8.30-9pm
Cakehole Presley
This Cardiff band has featured on NME's top unsigned band and has recently released an all-singing, all-dancing debut album. Get ready to jiggle your feet to their melodic, eclectic folk and blues.

9.15-9.45pm
The Bleedin' Noses
Self-proclaimed Welsh hillbillies The Bleedin' Noses are a country punk rock folk band with a big sound. Drums, bass, guitars, banjos, mandolins, keyboards, accordion and vocals make an up-tempo dynamic sound that has won over audiences all over the UK.

10.15-11.45pm
Babyhead
Finishing off the Party with a bang is the unrivalled dance floor band Babyhead. They've been a live phenomenon for a decade plus, rocking stages from Glastonbury to Fabric. Get ready to dance!